FORMED EPISCOPAL CHURCH DENIED-

NO PURTIER RESIGNATIONS. Members of the General Council of the Reformed Episcopal Church spent much of yesterday in discussing in public and private the probable effect of the vestment resolution passed on Friday, Many were of the opinion that the Church might suffer in Canada and the West on account of the adoption of the black gown, there being in those sections a strong feeling in favor of the surplice. Bishop Fallows, however, said: "There will be no disruption of the Church. It would have been better if the Council could have acted more wisely, but the injury to the Church will be only temporary. I think that the feeling will disappear. This is only a standing resolution, anyway, and may be repealed at any time." The Birhop said that if the action was found injurious a special council could be called at any time. Bishop Cheney, about the likelihood of whos resigning altogether there were some rumors on Friday, was in the council yesterday. It is not thought that he will resign as Bishop, and it was said by a friend that he would probably reconsider his action in leaving committees. Bishop Campbell, the leader of the party in favor of the surplice. sald he thought all would accept the ruling of the Council and that all feeling would pass away.

The early part of yesterday morning's session

The early part of yesterday morning's session was devoted to reports on missionary work and obtaining pledges for the missionary fund for three years to come. The result of additional appeals for the fund showed pledges for a greater amount than that asked for, so it was announced that the contributions to needy churches in Canada could be increased $100 each.

At the afternoon session the Committee on Canons and Constitution announced that it would be unable to report on the proposed new constitution and amendments to the canons because the committee had been so depleted by resignations that it had not a quorum. It was discovered, however, that the committee had really reported on Bishop Campbell's amendments to the canons, and it was decided to make the amendments a special order of business for to-morrow morning's session. Bishop Campbell ended an old controversy by resigning the episcopacy of the Jurisdiction of Canada on account of the decision by the General Committee that it was not canonical for a bishop to live and hold a charge outside of his jurisdiction.

COMMENT ON CURRENT TOPICS.

MR. CALHOUN'S REPORT.

From The Washington Star.

Mr. Calhoun will confirm to him the existence in Cuba of the worst features of the situation that have already been described—a reign of terror under the Spanish flag, the land laid waste, the people herded like cattle and starving to death, and yet the spirit of the insurgents in arms still defigent and unbroken. The end is not in sight, unless by means of intervention of some kind by the United States, and that is the point with which it is reasonable to assume the President now will charge himself. BURGLAR SCARE IN BERGEN COUNTY.

SEVERAL HOUSES VISITED IN HACKENSACK AND BOGOTA.

Hackensack, June 12 (Special).-There was a hur ried assembling of police and armed citizens on Camden-st., near Main-st., about 1 o'clock this singled with the sharp crack of a revolver aroused the neighborhood. The Rev. George B. Giffin did the shooting and a part of the shouting, while a man who he said was trying to break into a barn near the house added his voice to the din. The fellow was secured and hurried to jail under an armed escort as the first real burglar ever captured in Hackensack, while Mr. Giffin was extelled for his hereism. This morning the prisoner, who gave his name as Patrick O'Donnell, was identified as a man who had applied to several itizens yesterday for work. He said he came from Tenaffy, and formerly from Jersey City; being without money, he was trying to find a place to sleep under cover. He was released.

While this little incident was startling Hackensuck a scene of a more thrilling character was being enacted in Pogota, on the east bank of the river, where a burgiar was visiting the houses of several citizens. He appears to have called first at the house of Joseph Kunz, on River Road, and was frightened away by Mr. Kunz, who heard noise at a window. He then stopped at A. Fuchs's house and forced a window, but could not get into the bedrooms and went away empty-

Squire, of Bridgehamton, Long Island, the two men occupying a room on the second floor, while Mrs. Stimis and an infant with her mother and two small children were in the other rooms. The doors were all open. At about 3 o'cicek the family was aroused by cries and shots, which they learned came from the home of Charles A. Hercht, at the corner of Larch-ave, and fort Lee Road.

Mr. Stimis and Mr. Squires then discovered that their clothes were gone from the room. These were found in the dining-room rifled of watches and money, the only articles left being keys and Mr. Squires railroad and steamboat tickets.

Meantime, the Hercht family was in a state of wild excitement. Mrs. Pauline Grayson, a sister of Mrs. Hercht, was awakened to see a man standing in the room occupied by herself and sister, Mrs. Aimee Hercht-Neil. Mrs. Grayson, at first thinking it was her brother, addressed him, but, discovering her mistake, leaped from the bed just as the man darted out of the room. The young woman dashed after the robber, crying for her brother, who appeared with a revolver and fired a shot down the stairs; he then ran down and sent

When the family began to count up the result of the burglar's visit it was found that the thief had cleaned out the pockets of Mr. Fiercht and Dr. Levi H. Thomas, a member of the household, securing two watches and about $100$ in cash.

The burglar was a short stout man, round-shouldered, and dressed in dark clothes, with a closely buttoned sack-coat, he had a large head and wore a small derby hat.

NOT A PRESENT TO PRESIDENT M'KINLEY. A statement appeared in a newspaper yesterday to the effect that Samuel McMillan, president of the Park Board, had presented a handsome pair of carriage horses to President McKinley, who had accepted them. There is no truth in the report as cepted them. There is no truth in the report as printed. Some time ago Abner McKinley, the President's brother, bought a fine pair of carriage horses dent's brother, bought a fine pair of carriage forses from Mr. McMillan, and paid for them the price asked by the owner. The horses were shipped to Washington last Wednesday by the purchaser, and are undoubtedly intended for President McKinley. They were bought for a good round sum. BEAST IS DISPATCHED. As the Brooklyn ferryboat America was discharg ing several hundred passengers at Grand-st., in this city, at 7:20 o'clock last night, a punic was caused by the cry of "Mad dog!" Instantly there was a rush in all directions from the object of terror, a dirty little yellow and white mongrel. It had boarded the boat on the Brooklyn side, and was not noticed until the pier was reached. Before the animal was killed four people were bitten, and one man was shot by a flying bullet from Police man Lonergan's revolver.

These were the persons injured: ALEXTOF, Solomon, twenty five years old, of No. 16 Suffolk-st. shot in the left leg. ALLEN, Theodore, of No. 98 Fourth-st., Brooklyn, deck-land on the ferrybont; bitten in several places, HOGAN, R. M., of No. 225 Cherry-st., a paraenger; bitten in the band.

An unknowneman and unknown boy, who went home trestment.

The dog came off the boat, snapping and snarling, with froth dripping from its open jaws, and the alarm was given by one of the passengers. They scattered in many lirections, and the anima ran into the ferry station. Allen ren after the beast with a club, and it turned on him, biting him in several places. Mr. Hogan then tried to caten the dog and was bitten in the hand and leg. On he way into the street a man and a boy, whose names were not obtained by the police, were then bitten by the animal.

names were not obtained by the police, were then bitten by the animal.

Leaving the forty-house the dog ran into Grandst, and ioward East-at. Policeman Lonersan, of the belancey-st, station, was on the ground by this time, and he becam to shoot at the animal. He fired four shots, and after the third, the dog dropped into the gutter. The policeman thought in had killed the beast, and was waiking away, when the dog aprans up, apparently none the worse, and again ran up the street. The policeman fired another shot. As he levelted his revolver the last time a Grand-st, car came up, and Solomon Alexrof, who was on the rear platform, attempted to get off. The buildt missed the dog, and struck him in the calf of the left leg. Alexrof dropped to the street, exchaining that he had been shot, and several people ran toward him and carried him to the sldewalk.

Policeman Hadlick, who, with half a dozen other policemen, heard the fring and came running to the place, drew his revolver, and with a single shot finally dispatched the dog. Allen and Hogan were taken to douverner Hospital, where their wounds were cauterized. Alexrof was also treated at the hospital. His injury was comparatively trivial.

There was much excluenced while the dog was running about the street. Women scrambed on boxes and some of the men (field to climb up on projections on the nearest buildings. Several hundred people were attracted by the shots, but kept at a zafe distance.

MR. SERVISS'S EUROPEAN TOUR. Garrett P. Serviss, who sailed for Genoa yesterday on the Kaiser Wilhelm II, in search of mor raw material for lectures, will make a more exonded tour in Europe than any he has undertaken hitherto. The Riviera will be carefully explored again; Venice and perhaps a few othe Italian cities will be revisited, and then Mr. Servis will push northward to the Rbine for an invasion of what is comparatively new territory to him. Germany, Russia, England and Scotland, even to the distant Hebrides, are to constitute the chief subjects of study this summer. If all goes well Mr. Serviss will return about the middle of September. But whether he can present to the public all the fruits of this harvest in a single lecture course remains to be seen.

COURT-MARSHAL OF PROF. FANCIULLI. Washington, June 12 - The summary court-martial before which Professor Fanciulli, leader of the Marine Band, is being tried for insubordination was continued to-day. The occurrences on Memorial was continued to-day. The occurrences on Memorial Day in connection with the music played by the band were gone over in great detail. The evidence tended to show that the lieutenant of the marines on that occasion used strong language to the professor in commenting on the march music selected for the day, and that the professor's offence consisted largely in protesting that he was the proper judge of the music to be played by the band, and not the fleutenant. No evidence was submitted which tended to show that the professor was insolent in his behavior or conducted himself in any manner unbecoming a gentleman.
